

Ridge Reserve "Old 240" Alabama Bourbon

After being in the business for over 50 years the founder decided it was time to quit looking for good whiskies and produce his own. So he founded Ridge Reserve Spirits and produced a highly rated straight bourbon whiskey and an exceptional bourbon mash whiskey.

Tom wanted a true custom-crafted, Alabama bourbon carefully distilled and aged in Alabama... each grain specifically selected for what it brings to the mix.

"Old 240" is that Alabama Bourbon, and every aspect of our Alabama craft distiller's considerable experience is focused on producing simply the best bourbon whiskey available.

An exceptionally smooth warm finish and overtones of espresso and butterscotch make "Old 240" an excellent "sipper". Neat, with a splash, or with a couple of ice cubes... this is a superb bourbon.

With its premium bottle, heavy-embossed logo label, cork cap, and hand-dipped wax seal, "Old 240" Alabama Bourbon is truly a standout.
